

Team First!

Define team.

What do teams do?

How do they interact with each other?

How do they interact with coaches?

How does the front end interact with the back end?

How do they interact with their parents?

How do they interact with club members

How do they interact with teams that are less skilled?

How do they interact with teams that are more skilled?

How do they interact with younger teams?

How do they interact with bonspiel organizers?

How do they interact with volunteers like ice makers and conveners?

What is the most important thing that teams do? Justify your answer.

Describe the positive consequences if teams do the most important thing!

Describe the negative consequences if teams don't do the most important thing!

How should teams hold each other accountable?

What else do we need to discuss?